
Surrey Health and Wellbeing Board

The Surrey Health and Wellbeing Board acts as the overall strategy setting board for Surrey, including acting as the Partnership Board for the ICS. It sets the long term vision and strategy looking across all public services and taking into account the wider determinants of health and wellbeing.